DETAILED ACTION

Amendment

1. Amendment filed February 4, 2003 has been entered as Paper No. 8. Claims 20-58 have been canceled. Claims 1-19 are pending. Claims 2-5 have been withdrawn.

From Previous Office Action

2. Claims 1 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) for being clearly anticipated by Sherman (U.S. Pub No. 2002/0031618), as previously applied.

3. Claims 7-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) for being unpatentable over Sherman as applied to claim 6 above, and further in view of Gates et al. (U.S. Patent No. 6,203,613), as previously applied.

Response to Arguments

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

Applicants argue that Sherman '618 does not have any specific teachings regarding trench isolation structures. Further, while Sherman does disclose depositing a monolayer into a high aspect ratio hole, as in Example 10, there is no teaching or suggest that the trenches can be filled by the disclosed methods".

First of all a "high aspect ratio hole" means a trench having high aspect ratio.

Secondly, Sherman's paragraph [0039] clearly teaches: "substrate being coat that have features with high aspect ratio holes or trenches".

Clearly Sherman does teach filling trenches using disclosed methods. The rejection is therefore, maintained.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

Since Sherman does teach filling the trenches using the disclosed methods, thus, the combination of the references clearly renders claims 7-19 obvious. The rejection is therefore, maintained.

Conclusion

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
